BNL THEATRE NIGHTS

Wednesday and Thursday
August 25 and 26

A reading of "Under Milk Wood" by Dylan Thomas, will be given by LuLu Anderson, John Binnington, George Cox, Ellen Goldfarb, Frances Keene, Ernest Knipp, and Stuart Ridgway on Wednesday, August 25, at 8:30. M.J. Sears, director.

Next night - double header

"Fumed Oak" by Noel Coward, will be presented by Jane Caspar, Andy MacReynolds, Bereneice Neuman, and Rita Straub. Ruth Schwarz directed it.

and-

"In the Zone" by Eugene O'Neill, with Bob Margulies, Newt Meisel, Al Richter, Stuart Ridgway, Roger Thies, Walt Tulecke Charles Whittenbach and Dave Wolfe. The director was Harry Strauss.

These two evenings represent the summer work of the BNL Theatre Group. (The schedule for presentation represents the vacation plans of some of those who get involved.) Summer visitors are employed - Harry Strauss, from Michigan, is one of them.

"Under Milk Wood" was originally written as a radio script - that's why it will be "read," not "enacted." We are using a slightly abridged version. "Fumed Oak" and "In the Zone" will be three-dimensional, uncut productions.

There will be beer and talk after Wednesday's performance - notices about fall production will be given on that night.

THEATRE GROUP

All Theatre Group members are urged to attend a meeting on Tuesday, August 31 at 8:30 p.m. in the Recreation Hall, York Lane.

At this time the Advisory Board will present synopses of four plays for your consideration for a December production. The Board has chosen two delightful comedies, "The Late George Apley" and "Harvey" and two hair-raising mysteries, "10 Little Indians" and "Laura".

The Theatre Library has copies of all plays selected and you are invited to read any or all of them before this meeting.
